

“LIVE DESIGN ensures I keep up with my many interests in the live entertainment business, from projection and media servers to the best LED wash light. It brings the trends to me, and it’s an indispensable tool to keep both myself and my facility in the lead.”

— Brian McCoy
Production Stage Manager
Wilson Center for the Arts,
Florida Community College

Hands-on innovators like Brian constantly search for new ideas and technology. They need reliable product information to help them solve challenges across a variety of events and venues.

LIVE DESIGN is the NEW multi-media franchise that provides the world’s top designers, programmers and technicians with the latest news, tools and technology across the entire spectrum of live entertainment—theatre, concerts, houses of worship, clubs, corporate events, and more.

In addition to LIVE DESIGN magazine, read the Theatre Quarterly supplement on the theatre market; subscribe to Live Design Wire, SRO Now and TQ Now e-newsletters; attend the LDI Show and Live Design Master Classes; and access targeted content and supplier sourcing tools at livedesignonline.com.
